THE MUN RACE

As their names are called, the delegates enter. The speaker announces, "I want to give you a crisis update before I make any motions." Russia's embassy in Indonesia has lost all contact, the crisis in Taiwan has intensified, and the DPRK is in a shaky position due to Russia-China tensions. Preparing their speeches and taking their starting positions, they are ready to race.

The race begins with the shooting of the pistol. The Chinese, Indonesians, Pakistanis, and Myanmar all brand Russia and Singapore as "traitors". China will be destroyed, according to the USA. The Unmoderated Caucus follows. True motives are revealed as they cross this patch and form their directives. Big Brother i.e. the U.S. is paired with its nemesis Russia and they both draft a directive stating the USA would provide military support to Taiwan. Russia considers Taiwan a free country and breaks ties with Indonesia.

China and DPRK draft a 3 phase directive. Phase 1 aims to protect the head of state and attack the Russian port; in Phase 2, DPRK declares war on the South Korean army, followed by Phase 3 where China would attack Taiwan.

The third directive by the UK, France, and Ireland states that they would take the side of diplomacy and would not support the attacking party. As the rough patch comes to an end, the delegates power through the last part.

Just as the delegates are finishing up, they are hit by a major crisis. Seoul is a war zone because of the conflict between DPRK and ROK. Due to its expansion post Vladivostok, China has lost control of its internal conflicts and there have been multiple riots in Beijing and Shanghai. Due to the vessel's insufficient capacity, the American ships can't reach Taiwan. Russia claims China's border regions on a new map. Taiwan is under attack. Despite a standoff, China has not breached the Taiwanese mainland. With this update, the countries draft two resolutions, one by the PRC and Myanmar, and the other by Taiwan and the USA. In the end, as the countries approached the finish line, both resolutions failed, bringing the committee to an unfortunate defeat.

2024-2025

SUBJECT:

LETTER GRADING:

TEAMWORK

PRESS NOTES:

The delegates who made the working papers had excellent coordination within their team but constantly tried to tear people outside their team to bits. Teamwork is key not only within but without as well! It is important to remember that everyone is working towards a common goal.

B

DIPLOMACY

PRESS NOTES:

The members of different blocks were not exceedingly polite to each other and in their speeches, fiery words were exchanged with the Delegate of China stating that the French Republic was "stuck in the past" and "didn't have its own people's support".

C

RESEARCH

PRESS NOTES:

The Delegate of New Zealand was confident and had researched extremely well. She had all the required information and learnt all the statistics, enabling her to give numerous rebuttals. No one dared to go up against her.

SUBJECT:

LETTER GRADING:

PUBLIC SPEAKING

PRESS NOTES:

The delegate of India spoke concisely and intelligently during her 2v2 and was quick to counter any point made by her opposition with sheer facts and well-thought-out logic. Most other delegates, too, confidently made clever observations and pertinent points during the GSL.

IMPROVISATION

PRESS NOTES:

The delegate of France succinctly parried all the questions posed to her by the guest chair member. This fine display of her improvisation skills and quick thinking earned her the respect of said chair member.

B

VOLUME CONTROL

PRESS NOTES:

The delegates were quick to increase their volume and talk among themselves incredibly loudly. This was not appreciated by the Executive Board, who took it upon themselves to limit crosstalk and maintain decorum. The committee must learn to moderate the level of their voices.

C

OVERALL NOTES

JOURNALIST:
SIDDHANT SRIDHRAN,
HAMZH KANCHWALA

The delegates performed admirably towards the end of the committee session and grew as a whole, participating in intelligent debates and using the resources available to them. The clear passing of the first Bloc's resolution shows the progress of the team. We can't wait to see what this committee has to offer us in the future!

DIPLOMACY BALLADS

The U.S. admitted to the violation of Human Rights, while DPRK supported the U.S. and vouched for Guantanamo Bay as a place to “safeguard the world from extremism”. The gentle, yet firmly handled diplomatic conciliations resembled the soothing rhythm of folk ballads - replete with ancient wisdom and profound insight.

#2

DEBATE POP

A heated debate with two factions emerging, on the one hand, the nations that supported Guantanamo Bay and its functioning, and on the other hand nations that strongly condemned it, asking for its immediate closure. The proponents stressed the security aspect of the argument. At the same time, the opposing side highlighted the alleged human rights violations committed at the place, calling for the U.S. to be prosecuted for its actions. The constant back and forth, snide jabs, and passionate rebuttals were reminiscent of the highly dynamic and engaging pop music. The experience was truly immersive.

#3

NEGOTIATION BEATS

During the Unmoderated Caucus sessions, the blocs grappled with assigning authors and co-authors for resolutions. Amidst several arguments and intricate problems, compromise looked like the only solution. Slowly but surely, the delegates negotiated their roles - the steady beat of pragmatic concessions drowning the clamor of self-sustaining interests.

#4

RESOLUTION ROCK

The drafting of the resolution marked a triumphant end to the committee session, resembling a powerful guitar solo towards the end of a 70s rock song. Despite minor setbacks along the way, two resolutions were finally drafted - one by the PRC and Myanmar, and the other by Taiwan and the USA.

A large, bold, white sans-serif font spelling "INTERPOL" is centered on the page. The text is set against a dark blue background that features a faint, large-scale version of the INTERPOL emblem. Mozambique addressing the crisis around the world

We offer to send troops and law sectors to other countries in order to combat this crisis!

Delegate of Mozambique, how can you offer to help other nations during this crisis when your country is in a state of poverty?

You shouldn't be looking at the status of our country. Instead, think about what we can do for the betterment of the world.

Where is the money from your aid going? Is it going to Al-Shabab?

No! The money will be invested in our agriculture

Delegate of Mozambique, what is your idea? Helping other countries instead of yours? 🙄

...

No words huh, Mozambique? 🙄

South Africa offering to help the other nations in Africa.

We have the greatest economy in Africa; hence, being the leader of the African continent, we will prevent piracy from other African countries by providing stable jobs and resources to the Africans.

How can you say you're the leader of the African continent?

As South Africa has the best democracy in Africa!

Egypt has the best economy in South Africa! Research first! 🇷🇺 South Africa cannot even manage their own country, look at their economy! How will they be able to manage the entire continent?

South Africa does have the highest GDP! It is ten times more than Morocco! What are you doing to help the continent?

That is what the African Union is for; they have an agenda!

How do you plan on increasing your economy?

It takes plenty of years to strengthen an economy. As the Representative of Morocco, I can assure you that we are taking methods to work on it.

Crisis Update

We have a crisis update! 🚨

- i) Russia has sent 800 of their planes, 2000 loaned, to Sri Lanka.
- ii) Ukraine launched a full-blown attack on Russia!
- iii) The Iranian nukes on the Russian ship, which were told to be lost, have been found by Egypt! They have nuked South Africa's Air and Naval force, along with the capital of Mozambique.
- iv) Last but not least, an Iranian Aircraft has crashed into the Burj Khalifa. 🚨

E.B adds the Commander in Chief of The US military to the group

Hooligans! They think they can threaten the USA! How can China nuke our country when they can't even manage their own population? We have ten times the nukes you own; there is no way you can reach our power. Egypt finding a nuke in The Suez canal? Because they can't make one of their own! No one can dare look in the eyes of The USA! 🇺🇸

What about the hooligans bombing the Yemani port?

Do not question us! Half of your military ports are there because of the USA.

Really USA? How will you defend an alliance of China, Russia and Egypt and Iran?

Ha! The US is far more powerful than all the countries combined! Iran is last in all priorities, Russia is getting attacked by Ukraine, and no one cares about Egypt.

How do you have the audacity to speak like this and attack my country?

Yes.

Case Number: #2

Date: 20th May, 2074

Incident 1	Attempted Assassination of Trump Jr. by Belarus and Russia
Incident 2	Attack of India on Beijing
Details of Event	The delegates try to remain as cool as possible while they get to the bottom of the crises through intense negotiations. Upon further debate, it is revealed that not Trump Junior, but a robot impersonating Trump Junior had been assassinated! On the other hand, the disarray caused by the attack on Beijing leaves all the delegates scratching their heads harder than Hitchcock and Scully trying to solve a case. Questions were left unanswered, and the confusion escalated faster than Boyle's obsession with food.
Actions Taken	Upon seeing the turmoil, precisely like Terry's workout routine, the countries decided that coming together and solving this crisis (pun intended) was the only way to ensure world peace and security. The delegates came together and formed blocs with other countries while coming up with directives to solve their differences. The USA bloc came forth with their stance. Their motto was "There is always peace after war". After what felt like ages, the committee session finally ended with a vote. Fortunately or unfortunately, Russia, Belarus and Pakistan won.

Summary

In the midst of the chaos caused by the crises of the attempted assassination of Trump Jr. and the attack on Beijing by India- the delegates, embodying the UN mantra of maintaining peace, equality, and dignity of all the nations, successfully navigated the situation like Captain Holt. Leaving no stone unturned and with determination sharper than Rosa's glare, the delegates concluded the committee session with the much-awaited voting, while also protecting the peace and integrity of their nations.

ARAB LEAGUE

NEWSLETTER

SMUN 2024

JOURNALIST: Jolene Kotian, Urja Kamat
ILLUSTRATOR: Samara Venkat

Once in the 21st century, in a land not so far away, there was a battle between two countries. Their names? Israel and Palestine. After a gruesome battle of wits during which news arrived that Iran had switched to Israel's side, the war of resolutions finally came.

Will these countries finally come to a compromise, or will it end in a bloodshed?

Get ready to read one of the biggest controversies in the Arab League. So ladies and gentlemen, are you ready to rumble?

The first to strike was the Delegate of Israel who presented the Pro-Israel resolution with its co-author, the Delegate of Saudi Arabia. Their first clause was that all Arab League nations must combat the extremism acts by Iran and Hamas. However, when Lebanon and Palestine questioned the legitimacy and implications of the proposed resolution, the EB removes the clause and says

*You need to let it go,
Need to let it go,*

Nah to the ah to the, no, no, no" - No by Meghan Trainor

Both countries, disappointed in the EB's decision, hoped that the next clause - which encouraged the international community to provide support for the reconstruction and rehabilitation of essential infrastructure - would be passed. After Palestine's amendment to the clause that there must be reconstruction and rehabilitation of everything damaged by Israeli bombing, the clause finally passed with ease. Allies of Israel certainly felt like breaking into song saying

*"Here comes the sun, doo-doo-doo-doo
Here comes the sun, and I say
It's alright"*

- Here Comes The Sun by The Beatles

Unfortunately for them, the sun set quite quickly, for the rest of their resolution did not pass. Only 3 clauses were accepted. You could say their resolution was

"nothin' but a lost cause"
-Lost Cause by Billie Eillish

Then came the Pro-Palestine block written by the Delegate of Palestine, Lebanon and Republic of Sudan.

The Delegate of Afghanistan successfully passed the amendment for charging Israel with the bill of reconstructing the 105 mosques destroyed in war. The delegate of Afghanistan said to the nations:

*"Well, anyway let me say, "You're welcome"
For the wonderful world you know" as rightly said by Dwayne Johnson.*

Clause 13 of the resolution was denied as countries like Yemen, Venezuela and Syria were not powerful enough to compensate for the losses of war.

The main ideas of the proposition to call for peace, fair resolutions and justified rolls from countries won the support of the majority of delegates. They certainly are the ' Lucky Ones' as Lana Del Ray would say it. Palestine got almost everything it wanted and walked out a free nation.

Resume

In the Night Crisis Committee stands a politically unstable Germany for the head of state has been tragically killed with no clear successor, causing political turmoil in the entire committee. In the middle of escalating national emergencies and fiery political altercations, a fierce battle unfolds as delegates try to create a new era for Germany. Watch as desperation, passion and ambition collide in the quest to claim Germany's future. Will a new leader rise from the ashes, or will the country's past dark shadows dictate the path forward?

Episodes

Episode 1

A national broadcast declared the Chancellor of Germany, Olaf Scholz, and Peter Mirow as the new vice chancellor with him refusing to reveal who is the new chancellor of Germany. The committee began with delegates emphasising the intensity of not having a chancellor and the importance of forming coalitions to bring back peace, prosperity and stability in the now-disordered Germany. While Annelena Baerbock puts herself forward to lead the parliament and mentions her aims for carbon nuclearity by 2025 in Germany, Daniel Baldy angrily tells her how inconsiderate she is towards the death of the Chancellor of Germany. Will Germany get a new chancellor and will that person be the right one? Watch this enthralling episode to know more.

Episode 2

Chaos in the room, tension on the faces of delegates, sweat trickling down their foreheads, only for one reason - Who should be the new Chancellor? Lisa Badum and Karl Bar are in favour of Mr. Robert Habeck being elected as vice chancellor of Germany. Karl Bar states that Germany has suffered a lot in the past due to dictatorship. The best decision right now would be to elect the vice chancellor, Mr. Habeck, the head of The Greens Party as the new chancellor or so it seems... A few members wanted Daniel Baldy, a teacher, to lead the Parliament. Who do you think will win - A teacher like Daniel Baldy or Mr. Habeck?

Episode 3

In the middle of the chaos, Angela Merkel's reappointment as chancellor evokes haunting echoes of the nation's past, as she advocates a return to the ideas of Adolf Hitler. However, when Angela was leaving the parliament building, a security officer, loyal to the SDP, killed her. This led to the formation of a dangerous alliance led by Daniel Baldy and Philipp Anthor, who promised to lead ethnic German nationalists down a perilous path. Can the nation resist its darkest impulses or will history repeat it?

WIZARDS AT THE PODIUM

JOURNALIST: JOELENE KOTIAN

ILLUSTRATOR: ANOUK DMELLO

HERMIONE GRANGER - THE PREPARED DELEGATE:

Known for her meticulous preparation and profound knowledge, Hermione Granger, would craft resolutions and sway opinions with her wealth of knowledge. Her dedication to noble causes like house-elf rights would seamlessly translate into championing global development goals. With her persuasive charm and unwavering determination, she would be a force to reckon with in any debate. Be sure not to upset her or else you will probably hear something along the lines of, "You are the most insensitive wart I ever had the misfortune to meet." (OUCH!)

HARRY POTTER - THE CHARISMATIC LEADER:

This delegate with his innate leadership skills and ability to perform under pressure, would navigate through crisis simulations with ease. Harry Potter's speeches, filled with passion and calls for justice, might just go like this:

"Working hard is important. But there is something that matters even more: believing in yourself." (Certainly inspires you to bang your tables in agreement, doesn't it?)

RON WEASLEY - THE RELATABLE DIPLOMAT:

Ron Weasley may start as an underdog but would quickly prove his worth with his strategic thinking and ability to forge alliances. His knack for humour and timing (honed through years of chess games) would diffuse tension and foster collaboration even in the most challenging negotiations and if someone underestimates the power of a good alliance, he might suggest with a grin, "You don't want to go making friends with the wrong sort."

DRACO MALFOY - THE REFORMING ANTAGONIST:

Despite his controversial past, Draco Malfoy would use his sharp wit and networking skills to challenge opinions and push for change. His commitment to reform and clever negotiation tactics would earn him respect and influence among delegates. This delegate might sneer at a failing proposal from an opposing delegate, remarking with a mix of pride and scorn, "Honestly, if you were any slower, you'd be going backwards."

MINERVA MCGONAGALL - THE FIRM CHAIR:

As the chair of the committee, McGonagall would command respect with her strict yet fair leadership style. She would ensure that debates remain focused and rules are upheld, but say an unfortunate delegate turns up late, "Perhaps it would be more useful if I transfigured you into a pocket watch?"

Just as in the wizarding world, where diverse personalities unite to overcome challenges, these delegates, whether charismatic leaders or supportive allies contribute to the collective progress of diplomatic endeavours. So, the next time you find yourself in a conference room or committee session, imagine the Wizards of SMUN navigating the intricacies of diplomacy, and perhaps you'll see your role in a magical new light.

A TUTORIAL FOR MUNNERS

STEP 1: PRIMER

Start by priming your face, like a well prepared delegate perfects their arguments - flawless and ready for debate. Remember, in MUN and makeup, preparation is key!

STEP 2: FOUNDATION

Apply your foundation evenly to perfect your base, just like you'll lay the groundwork for your debate. Build a strong base to support your makeup, just as thorough preparation supports successful debate.

STEP 3: CONCEALER

Concealer is your secret weapon! Conceal any imperfections, because sometimes in MUN, you need to hide your weaknesses and highlight your strengths! Concealing is the final step to perfecting your base.

STEP 4: HIGHLIGHTER

Choose a good highlighter to illuminate your face and highlight your strengths in challenging debates! Let your glow be as radiant as your speeches, garnering attention and interest one word at a time!

STEP 5: EYESHADOW

Create a coalition of eye shadow colors that just work together, similar to how you'll work with other delegates to find resolutions to global challenges. Remember, teamwork makes the dream work – and the eye shadow pop!

STEP 6: MASCARA

Lengthen and volumize your lashes with mascara, because bold statements are essential in both MUN and makeup. But those lashes like you mean business, conveying confidence and determination with every flutter.

STEP 7: LIPSTICK

Choose a lipstick shade that exudes confidence, just like your arguments in committee. Be calm, collected and confident and watch as heads turn in admiration of your eloquence.

STEP 8: SETTING SPRAY

Finish with a setting spray to ensure your makeup (and resolutions) stay intact through the longest of sessions. Because in MUN, as in makeup, you need staying power to weather any storm!

WITH YOUR MAKEUP COMPLETE AND YOUR MUN GAME STRONG, YOU'RE NOW MUN-READY FOR THE CONFERENCE!
